

Six Pump Court Chambers
is delighted to invite you to attend a webinar on -

“International arbitration awards: challenge and enforcement”

The webinar will deal with problems relating to the challenge and enforcement of international arbitral awards. Speakers will look in particular at those problems that may arise post-Brexit and in the Covid- 19 world of virtual hearings.

The webinar will be chaired by Stephen Hockman QC and will take place on Friday 20 November 2020
11 am – 12. 15 pm GMT

Speakers and topics:

Paul McGarry SC

International Arbitration – a solution to Brexit enforcement issues

Paul is Senior Counsel of the Bar of Ireland and a member of the Bars of England and Wales and of Northern Ireland. He has appeared frequently before the European Courts.

As an international arbitrator he has dealt with many disputes involving international insurance claims, maritime law, professional negligence, reinsurance and financial services. He has been appointed by the ICC in disputes relating to energy and engineering works. He has advised or represented clients in arbitral disputes under ICC, LCIA, CAS and ad hoc rules.

Przemysław Krzywosz

Due process – the right to be heard in virtual hearings

Przemysław is a lawyer qualified in two jurisdictions – as Radca prawny in Warsaw, Poland and as Solicitor of England & Wales. He is an international arbitrator who has acted in cases involving Austrian, Czech, German, Romanian, Ukrainian and US parties. In those cases he acted as Chairman of the Tribunal, as Sole Arbitrator and as “wing arbitrator” under ICC, UNCITRAL and Polish local arbitration institutions rules.

James Clanchy

The LCIA Arbitration Rules 2020: enforcement hazards and tips to avoid them

James is a solicitor [non-practising] and former Registrar and Deputy Director General of the London Court of International Arbitration. He headed up the LCIA’s casework secretariat and oversaw the administration of more than a thousand commercial arbitrations. He also assisted the Director General and the LCIA’s Board with the development of the LCIA’s business in the UK and overseas.

Since 2016 James has been in independent practice as an arbitrator. He takes party and institutional appointments in ad hoc and administered commercial arbitrations. He has been appointed in arbitrations seated in London, Copenhagen and Dubai.

He works part-time as a content provider for LexisNexis UK on LexisPSL Arbitration.

Anthony Connerty

Challenges to Arbitration Awards: The New York Convention, the Arbitration Act and Anti- Arbitration Injunctions

Anthony specialises in international dispute resolution and has acted as Counsel, Arbitrator and Mediator in international arbitrations and mediations in Abu Dhabi, Beijing, Lagos, London, New York, Shanghai, Singapore, Stockholm and Washington D.C. under the Rules of various international institutions including the LCIA, ICC, ICA [International Cotton Association], AAA/ICDR, CIETAC, CIArb, SCC [Stockholm], RCICAL [Lagos], LME [London Metal Exchange] and in ad hoc arbitrations under the UNCITRAL Rules. He has acted as Counsel in arbitration- related litigation.

Jill Barrett

Jill will follow the presentations as discussant.

She advises on questions of treaty law and practice in relation to international investment treaty disputes and provides expert evidence in treaty arbitrations.

Jill specialises in the law and practice of treaties, the polar regions, international environmental law and law of the sea. She was previously Legal Counsellor at the Foreign & Commonwealth Office.
